Day 4, 02 Dec 22

Palo Verde National Park Boat Tour / Lunch included / Regular

You will go through the Costa Rican countryside, seeing gorgeous scenery and the small villages that reside just off the main roads. On the way to the Palo Verde National Park, make a stop in Guaitil, the home of many talented artisans who showcase their work all around Costa Rica. You might have seen their work in souvenir shops, and now you will get to see how the work is done first-hand. An artisan will show you how to turn natural clay into a useful or decorative object and you will realize how natural and important this ancient process is in Costa Rican culture.

Next, you'll head to Palo Verde National Park, a wildlife refuge that encompasses more than 10,000 square hectares. When you arrive at the edge of the river, you'll hop on board a comfortable, covered motorized boat and make your way down the river with an experienced nature guide. Your guide will point out various types of wildlife like birds, iguanas, lizards, monkeys, and even crocodiles! When your tour is over, you will be taken to a restaurant to enjoy a traditional Costa Rican lunch.

Santa Rosa National Park Guided Hike & Liberia City Tour / Lunch included / Regular

The Santa Rosa National Park is the site of Costa Rica's most important monument, the Hacienda Santa Rosa. Known locally as La Casona (meaning "large house" in Spanish), this monument marks the fall of filibuster William Walker and his professional mercenaries to a local peasant army in 1856. Today, La Casona is a museum dedicated to the memory of this battle. This tour will allow you to stop by and explore this historical sight. While inside the park, you will also be given the chance to walk through a dry forest that contains some 2% of the world's biodiversity. Along the trails, search for monkeys, birds, sloths and more.

Following the hike, the tour will make its way to the city of Liberia. Here, you can walk around the city center and enjoy glimpses of what was once called the "White City." Liberia enjoyed this title because of its white adobe houses, white dirt roads, and locals who were known for wearing white to counteract the effects of the region's extreme heat. While in Liberia, you will enjoy a tour of historic places and have the opportunity to buy souvenirs.

Lunch is included in a local restaurant.
